Figure 1. Measured water retention curves for clay soil and a geosynthetic drainage net (GDN). Circles represent data points and lines represent fitted models.